- On Sunday, our neighbour Mrs Sharma rang our bell.
"Daisy is stuck on my roof! She cannot come down. Can you please help me?" she asked.
"What is Daisy doing on the roof?" asked Dad.
"It's her favourite place. She likes to sit up there and think," said Mrs Sharma.
"Does she go on the roof often?" asked Dad.
"She goes up there every afternoon. She comes down at dinnertime," said Mrs Sharma.
"I shall bring my ladder and climb up," said Dad.
Dad climbed up to the roof.
"Can you see Daisy?" asked Mrs Sharma.
"I can see a black cat, but I cannot see Daisy," said Dad.
"But the cat is Daisy!" said Mrs Sharma.
